

STUDENT CONDUCT, EXPECTATIONS, AND REASONABLE SANCTIONS

Students are responsible as citizens to observe the laws of the United States, the state of Washington, and its subdivisions. The Board understands and affirms that behavior is associated with learning. An effective instructional program requires a safe and orderly school environment. The Board requires that each student adhere to the behavior expectations and rules of conduct established by the District and its various schools and programs, and submit to corrective action taken as a result of noncompliance with those rules. The behavior expectations are applicable during the school day; during any school activity conducted on or off campus; and off school grounds if a student's actions materially or substantially affect or interfere with the educational process or District operations. Special behavior expectations are also applicable while riding on a school bus.

Students are expected to:

- A. Follow reasonable standards of socially acceptable behavior;
- B. Respect the rights, person and property of others;
- C. Pursue the required course of study;
- D. Maintain the degree of order necessary for a positive climate for learning;
- E. Comply with school and district behavior expectations and rules; and
- F. Comply with the lawful authority of staff and reasonable corrective action imposed by school employees.

The Board also recognizes that schools must take reasonable steps so that students who fail to adhere to the District's rules and regulations and who receive corrective action for such misconduct remain engaged or are effectively reengaged in their educational program.

The Superintendent will develop written rules of conduct that will carry out the intent of the Board and establish procedures necessary to implement this policy. Schools may also develop and implement site-specific rules for student conduct. Such rules must be consistent with the District's rules of conduct.
